SUNNY ISLES BEACH, FLORIDA

Located in South Florida, Acqualina Resort & Spa is situated on 4.5 acres of beachfront, almost 122 metres (400 feet) of Atlantic Ocean coastline on Sunny Isles Beach. This incredible 51-storey Mediterranean-inspired resort tower features 97 rooms and suites, along with 188 luxurious onsite residences. The beautiful beachfront retreat has three swimming pools and three restaurants, including the renowned Il Milano New York. In addition to the finest dining, Acqualina is also home to North America's very first ESPA, and for those with children there is an extensive array of children's interactive and educational programs. Along with these and other numerous amenities, Acqualina residents and visitors are treated to panoramic ocean vistas and the impressive Miami skyline—all within easy traveling distance to Bal Harbor Shops, the Miami Botanical Gardens, museums and more. With Fort Lauderdale International Airport only 20 minutes away and Miami International only 30 minutes away, travel plans are a snap. To learn more, visit:
